

Center for Logistics and Transportation Policy

Now is the time to earn CEU's to expand your knowledge base and continue your professional development. Our Basic Certificate is for entry-level employees and our International Certificate is for the advanced employee that wants to improve their skills for future promotions.

Classes held in our Logistics Lab -- Room 120-E Technology Annex on University of Houston Campus (www.uh.edu) (503 on campus map)

Intermediate – Four hours	8 a.m. – noon July 15, 2008	Export Procedures	How to complete an exported shipment.
Intermediate – Four hours	1 p.m. – 5 p.m. July 15, 2008	Import Procedures	How to complete an imported shipment.
Intermediate – Four hours	1 p.m. – 5 p.m. July 23, 2008	Global Sourcing	Considerations for purchasing items from other countries.
Intermediate – Four hours	8 a.m. – noon July 23, 2008	Risk Management	Weighing the risks with the rewards of doing business.
Basic – Four hours	8 a.m. – noon August 12, 2008	Overview of Logistics	Comparison of modes of transportation. Economic impacts of logistics. Review the elements of a logistics system.
Intermediate - Four hours	Aug 21, 2008 8 a.m. – noon	L/C's and other payment choices	Methods used in letters of credits and an overview of other payment choices.
Basic - Four hours	August 26, 2008 8 a.m. – noon	Procurement	Look at decisions for successful purchasing processes. Purchasing ethics.
Basic - Four hours	Aug 28, 2008 8 a.m. – noon	Warehousing / Distribution Centers	How warehousing and Distribution Centers operate in the Supply Chain

Pricing:

Basic Logistics Certificate – 32 classroom hours

- $115 per student for a four-hour Basic class
- $95 each for multiple students from same company

International Logistics Certificate – 64 classroom hours

- $160 per student for a four-hour Intermediate class
- $145 each for multiple students from the same company for four-hour class

Registration and details at: www.uhlogistics.com or contact Joy Lloyd, Director, Center for Logistics and Transportation Policy, 713-743-4114, jdllloyd@central.uh.edu