CORNERSTONE SYSTEMS' RODELL NAMED TCI PERSON OF THE YEAR

Memphis, TN, July 15, 2011 – Cornerstone Systems, a leading nationwide provider of solutions for transportation and logistics, is proud to announce that company CEO and Chairman Rick Rodell has been named Transportation Clubs International Person of the Year for 2011.

Founded in the early 1900's, TCI is considered the preeminent transportation industry organization worldwide. The Memphis affiliate club, The Traffic Club of Memphis, nominated Rodell for the honor.

"It is very exciting that one of our Memphis Traffic Club members has won the TCI person of the year award for 2011", said Ken Opperman, TCI Executive Vice President of Marketing and Sales. Rick is our fourth winner from the Memphis club, including Dr. Neal Southern, Jim Van Eynde, and Mike Bruns. I'm looking forward to being in Savannah to see Rick receive the award."

"I'm extremely flattered to receive this award from such a notable group, but I would be remiss if I did not thank all of the Cornerstone family who really deserve the award." said Rick Rodell, Cornerstone Systems Chairman and CEO.

Mr. Rodell will be honored locally by the Traffic Club of Memphis at their Sept. 13 luncheon at the Racquet Club of Memphis. The TCI award ceremony will be held during the organization's annual conference in Savannah, GA, Sept. 15-17, 2011.

With service coverage spanning all of North America, Cornerstone Systems offers intermodal, railcar & railcar consolidation, truck brokerage, on-site logistics, and warehousing & transloading services.
